

Security. Comfort. Quality of life.

Minnesota Power is answering the call for a cleaner energy future through its EnergyForward strategy, adding more renewable energy and reducing carbon emissions while preserving safe, affordable and reliable energy for the 145,000 customers in northeastern Minnesota who depend on us to power homes, businesses and the natural resources-based industry that fuels the region's economy.

We are a proud sponsor of the AMEM conference

